New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary Mission Statement

The mission of the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Course Purpose

The purpose of this course is to provide quality, supplemental training specifically in the area of women's work in the local church. The core value focus is spiritual vitality and the curriculum competencies addressed are disciple making, servant leadership, and spiritual/character formation.

Core Value Focus

Spiritual Vitality – In observance of this year's core value of Spiritual Vitality, your professors encourage you to read through the Bible during the academic year 2009-101. Included in this syllabus is the Fall Semester Bible Readingn Plan.

Curriculum Competencies

1. Interpersonal Skills
2. Disciple Making
3. Servant Leadership

Course Description

This course is designed to study the scriptural basis of the Holy Spirit and His gifts in an effort to develop and use the spiritual gifts of women through the church.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will better understand the Holy Spirit and His gifts.
2. Students will learn the scriptural basis for spiritual gifts.
3. Students will identify, develop, and use their own spiritual gifts for ministry to others.
4. Students will develop strategies for training women to use their spiritual gifts through the local church.

Course Teaching Methodology

1. Power Point presentations
2. Threaded discussion
3. Individual study
4. Personal application

Course Requirements

1. Attend class. The course is divided into 8 one-week units. Each week's unit will have a variety of in-class content items, typically consisting of a video lecture and a slide show. Class attendance is based on a self-reported percentage of content completed. The student will provide a written statement of the percentage of completion of all in-class content items, due four weeks after completing the last week of class.
2. Participate in class discussion. Participation is determined by postings and responses in the Threaded Discussions held each week. These discussions will be related to the material covered in each week's content. All students are required to post a minimum of three responses in the discussion each week: one in answer to the presenting questions, and two in response to classmates' postings. In order for the threaded discussion to be of maximum benefit to everyone involved it is recommended that you stay as close to the course schedule as possible—so that everyone will participate in the discussion in the same week. Late postings will be penalized one point for each day late. Please limit discussions in this venue to the assigned topic. Students may email or use the miscellaneous forum to discuss other topics with your classmates. Graduate students must also post at least once per week in a Graduate Only discussion of the Wagner textbook.
3. Read assigned textbooks and other reading assignments. Reading assignments will include readings from the textbooks, Scripture, and other sources. The student will provide a written statement of completion of all reading assignments, due four weeks after completing the last week of class.
4. Write a book review of the primary textbook. The book review will be due four weeks after completing the last week of class.

Book Review

The review should include the following section headings:

- Bibliographical Information
(Author, title, place of publication, publisher, date of publication)
- Purpose of the Book
(Check forward, introduction, and first few pages for stated purpose)
- Summary of Content
(Brief description of main ideas)
 - Organization and Content
(Clarity, writing style, readability)
- Evaluation
(Accomplishment of purpose, weaknesses, strengths, usefulness of book)

The book review should be ten to fifteen pages, typed double spaced following A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations by Kate Turabian, published by University of Chicago Press.

5. Complete a take home final examination. The final exam will be posted on Blackboard under “Course Documents” and will be due four weeks after completing the last week of class.

Course Evaluation

This course will follow the grading system for the Graduate School:

A = 93-100

B = 85-92

C = 77-84

D = 70-76

F = Below 70

¼ = Class Attendance/Class Participation
