

Red Carpet Week set for May 25-29

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary (NOBTS) extension center students will be the center of attention on the seminary's main campus

May 25-29. The seminary's Red Carpet Workshop will combine necessary on-campus credit for extension students with much-needed fellowship together.

Both graduate and undergraduate classes will be offered. The event is open to main campus students as well.

The registration deadline is April 24 for most courses. Click HERE for more information.

This year, Red Carpet Week will also coincide with Suits for Servants at NOBTS. Those who attend Red Carpet Week will have the opportunity to purchase suits and ties from Jim Tatum from Suits for Servants at a reduced cost. Suits are $99.95 each. Ties are $5. See the Suits for Servants advertisement on page 3.

Housing and Meal Options

NOBTS is pleased to offer several very affordable options for housing and meals during Red Carpet Week. To qualify for this Red Carpet Week Housing and Meal Package, sign up for it by April 24 (same deadline as class registration) through Providence Guest House at 888.886.7276. Click HERE for more details.

Summer German Classes Offered

The Providence Learning Center will offer German classes this summer for preparing students to meet the language requirements for entry into NOBTS Research Doctoral Programs. Part one will take place June 1–19, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., Monday through Friday. Part two will take place June 29–July 17, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., Monday–Friday. The cost is $500 per part. For more information, contact J.P. Cox in the Providence Learning Center at jpcox@nobts.edu or at extension 8442.

Summer photography class offered on-campus

Boyd Guy will offer free beginners level photography classes on Tuesday nights in June. The classes are open to anyone and will be from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m., June 9, 16, and 30, in HSC 276.

The class will begin by discussing the primary and secondary functions of the Aperture, ISO and Shutter. Other topics include how to choose the right location, composing a scene, lighting the face, positioning people, processing, file organization and printing. Students do not need a camera, but a digital SLR camera is recommended.

This class is not Photoshop 101, but some retouching and digital processing will be addressed. To reserve a spot or ask a question, contact Boyd Guy by May 31 in the NOBTS Public Relations Office, by phone at 504.816.4455, ext. 3273, or by email at prgraphics@nobts.edu.

Cruise Ship Ministry Seeks Christian DVDs

Norman and Prescilla Mangum work with Global Maritime Ministries on the Norwegian Spirit cruise ship. Crew members are now organizing a weekly Christian movie night. This is a great way for them to fellowship with other Christian crew members, and the crew is in need of DVDs.

If you would like to donate a Christian DVD, bring them to Priscilla at the Facility Building, the Mangum apartment at 4527 2B Providence or send them through interoffice mail. The Mangums are also accepting Christian CDs for the crew members.

Sports Missions Opportunity in San Diego

Love sports? Want to travel to San Diego for just $150? Mark June 27-July 5 on your calendar for an awesome opportunity to do sports-related missions with two churches. Upward Sports is inviting seminary students to be a part of this life-changing experience. For more information, contact Dr. Judi Jackson at jjackson@nobts.edu or 282.4455, ext. 3223.

Texas Camp Seeks Summer Missionaries

Highland Lakes Camp and Conference Center, located in Spicewood, Texas, is looking for members of its Summer Missions Team.

Summer missionaries receive free housing, meals and limited health/accident insurance; a $60 weekly stipend; and a scholarship upon successful completion of 12 weeks of service. To apply or for more information, contact Danny Dawdy or Judy Sansom at 1.888.222.3482.
