Mission Statement
The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Core Value Focus
The seminary has five core values.

1. Doctrinal Integrity: Knowing that the Bible is the Word of God, we believe it, teach it, proclaim it, and submit to it. This course addresses Doctrinal Integrity specifically by preparing students to grow in understanding and interpreting of the Bible.

2. Spiritual Vitality: We are a worshiping community emphasizing both personal spirituality and gathering together as a Seminary family for the praise and adoration of God and instruction in His Word. Spiritual Vitality is addressed by reminding students that a dynamic relationship with God is vital for effective ministry.

3. Mission Focus: We are not here merely to get an education or to give one. We are here to change the world by fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries. This course addresses Mission Focus by helping students understand the biblical foundations for fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments.

4. Characteristic Excellence: What we do, we do to the utmost of our abilities and resources as a testimony to the glory of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Characteristic Excellence is addressed by preparing students to excel in their ability to interpret Scripture, which is foundational to effective ministry.

5. Servant Leadership: We follow the model of Jesus and exert leadership and influence through the nurture and encouragement of those around us. Servant Leadership is modeled by classroom deportment.

Curriculum Competencies
NOBTS faculty members realize that all ministers need to develop specific competencies if they are going to have an effective ministry. To increase the likelihood of NOBTS graduates having an effective ministry, the faculty developed a competency-based curriculum after identifying seven essential competencies necessary for effective ministry. All graduates are expected to have at least a minimum level of competency in all of the following areas:

1. Biblical Exposition: To interpret and communicate the Bible accurately.

2. Christian Theological Heritage: To understand and interpret Christian theological heritage and Baptist polity for the church.
3. Disciple Making: To stimulate church health through mobilizing the church for missions, evangelism, discipleship, and church growth.

4. Interpersonal Skills: To perform pastoral care effectively, with skills in communication and conflict management.

5. Servant Leadership: To serve churches effectively through team ministry.

6. Spiritual and Character Formation: To provide moral leadership by modeling and mentoring Christian character and devotion.

7. Worship Leadership: To facilitate worship effectively.

The curriculum competencies addressed in this course are:

1. Biblical Exposition: The student will explore biblical teachings about ministry to women.

2. Christian Theological Heritage: The student will explore theological and historical background for women’s ministry.

3. Disciple Making: The student will learn to facilitate spiritual growth in Christian women.

4. Interpersonal Relationships: The student will improve interpersonal communication as well as ministry skills.

5. Servant Leadership: The student will discover how to lead others toward spiritual maturity and use of spiritual gifts.

6. Spiritual and Character Formation: The student will develop personal and spiritual maturity.

7. Worship Leadership: The student will increase skills for leading women in the church.

Course Description

This course is designed to identify the needs and gifts of women today in order to build a more effective women’s ministry in the local church. Required Readings
The following texts and resources are required reading for class discussions and are to be read in their entirety unless otherwise specified.

Assignments and Evaluation Criteria

1. Students will attend class. The course is divided into 8 one-week units. Each week’s unit will have a variety of in-class content items, typically consisting of a video lecture and a slideshow. Class attendance is based on a self-reported percentage of content completed.
The student will provide a written statement of the percentage of completion of all in-class content items, due four weeks after completing the last week of class.

2. Students will participate in class discussion. Participation is determined by postings and responses in the Threaded Discussions held each week. These discussions will be related to the material covered in each week's content. All students are required to post a minimum of three responses in the discussion each week: one in answer to the presenting questions, and two in response to classmates’ postings. In order for the threaded discussion to be of maximum benefit to everyone involved it is recommended that you stay as close to the course schedule as possible—so that everyone will participate in the discussion in the same week. Late postings will be penalized one point for each day late. Please limit discussions in this venue to the assigned topic. Students may email or use the miscellaneous forum to discuss other topics with your classmates.

3. Students will read the assigned textbooks and provide a written statement of completion, which will be due four weeks from the last day of class.

Book Review
The book review should include the following section headings:

- Bibliographical Information
  (Author, title, place of publication, publisher, date of publication)
- Purpose of the Book
  (Check forward, introduction, and first few pages for stated purpose)
- Organization and Content
  (Clarity, writing style, readability)
- Evaluation
  (Accomplishment of purpose, weaknesses, strengths, usefulness of book)

This book review should be ten to fifteen pages, typed double spaced following A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations by Kate Turabian, published by University of Chicago Press. It will be due four weeks from the last day of class.

5. Students will develop a purpose statement for their own Women’s Ministry which will be due four weeks from the last day of class.

6. Students will complete a take home final examination. It will be due four weeks from the last day of class.

Requirements must be received by the end of each semester or the student will receive a course grade of an “F”. Students may request an incomplete in the course in case of emergency. Please see the Graduate catalog for details about the request process.

Course Evaluation
This course will follow the grading system for the Graduate School:

A = 93-100  1/4 = Attendance/Class Participation
B = 85-92   1/4 = Book Review
C = 77-84   1/4 = Purpose Statement
D = 70-76   1/4 = Take-home Final Examination
F = Below 70

Netiquette: Appropriate Online Behavior
Each student is expected to demonstrate appropriate Christian behavior when working online on Discussion Boards or whenever interaction occurs through web, digital, or other electronic medium. The student is expected to interact with other students in a fashion that will promote learning and respect for the opinions of others in the course. A spirit of Christian charity is expected at all times in the online environment.
