The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Purpose of the Course
The purpose of this course is to study the nature of interpersonal relationships with particular reference to personal, family, church, and community relationships.

Core Value Focus
The course will emphasize the seminary’s current core value focus assigned annually by the Administrative Council. For the 2015-2016 academic year, the core value is Mission Focus.

The core values of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary are:

Doctrinal Integrity – Knowing that the Bible is the Word of God, we believe it, teach it, proclaim it, and submit to it. The doctrinal statements used in our evaluations are our Articles of Religious Belief and the Baptist Faith and Message Statement.

Spiritual Vitality – We are a worshiping community, with both personal spirituality and gathering together as a Seminary for the praise and adoration of God and instruction in His Word.

Mission Focus – We are not here merely to get an education or to give one. We are here to change the world by fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Characteristic Excellence – What we do, we do to the utmost of our abilities and resources as a testimony to the glory of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Servant Leadership – We follow the model of Jesus and exert leadership and influence through the nurture and encouragement of those around us.

Assignments and Evaluation Criteria

I. Unit Assignments
Students should complete all unit assignments as instructed on Blackboard by the posted due dates on the syllabus. All units include reading assignments, quizzes, journals, and discussion boards. Unit assignments will be available on Monday at 1 p.m. (CST) of each week. Unit assignments are due on Monday of the following week, 11:59 p.m. (CST) [unless otherwise noted on the course schedule]. It is the student’s responsibility to be aware of due dates.

II. Reading Assignments/Quizzes
Students should complete all reading assignments and quizzes by the assigned dates. Each quiz must be taken by the due date given for each unit assignment; no late quizzes will be allowed. Quizzes will not be accessible after the due date. Students will receive a final quiz grade which will be the total points earned on all quizzes divided by the total points possible on all quizzes.

III. Journals
Students will keep a journal throughout the course. The journals will be assessed by the following criteria:

- To what degree did the student engage in self-exploration
- To what degree did the student interact with reading assignments
- To what degree did the student make application to his/her area of ministry

Journal entries should be at least two to three full paragraphs (approximately 200 words). The title of each journal entry should be the unit number and the student’s last name (e.g., Unit 1 Journal Rivers).

Journal entries are due when the unit for which they are assigned closes. No late journal entries are allowed in this course. (See grading rubric attached to the syllabus for more information.)

Note about Journal: The topics students are asked to write about in their journals often require them to share information about themselves. For this reason, journal entries will be read by the professors and teaching assistants and treated confidentially. However, Information and Technology Center personnel at NOBTS will have access to the Blackboard course and will, in times of need, login to the course to address any problems that might occur that hinder the professors and the students from effectively engaging in online learning.

IV. Discussion Boards
Threaded discussion is intended to foster dialogue concerning the subject matter. Timely answers are critical for participating in threaded discussions. Initial posts to threaded discussions should be submitted by 11:59 p.m. on Thursday of each week to allow time for further dialogue. All students are expected to respond to at least 2 initial posts per week. Response posts are due when the unit for which they are assigned closes. Threaded discussions should be timely and thought provoking, referencing reading content and making real-life application. Points will be deducted for late initial posts. No late response posts are allowed in this course. (See grading rubric attached to the syllabus.)

V. Skill Building Exercises
Students will complete all of the following exercises:
1. Log your communication (face-to-face and technologically-mediated) for a 6-hour period of time. Record the sender, receiver [use category, such as family member, friend, rather than actual name of person], context, channel of communication, purpose of communication, and time spent in communication. In a 2-page report (typed, double-spaced), discuss the similarities and differences between face-to-face communication and technologically-mediated communication. Include your communication log with your report.
2. Create an identity collage using PowerPoint. In 6-8 slides, depict your self-concept. Represent your personality, experiences, interests, relationships, talents, strengths and weaknesses, ambitions, and ministry. In a 2-page report (typed, double-spaced), summarize your depiction of your self-concept and offer suggestions (at least 3) for strengthening your self-concept. Submit your PowerPoint slides as a pdf file.
3. The impact of family experiences on our present and future is discussed in chapters 6-9 in Bozeman and Smith. Discuss the family of origin experiences that have shaped you. Assess your attention to family relationships and family matters in your family of procreation. Discuss similarities and differences in your family of origin and family of procreation. Your report should be 4 pages (typed, double-spaced).
4. A. Interview 2 persons (other than seminary students) that have been in ministry 5 or more years. Ask interviewees about the following: 1) their view of the importance of interpersonal relationship skills in ministry; 2) the challenges they have faced in ministry as a result of interpersonal relationship issues; and 3) their opinion of what seminary students need to know about interpersonal relationships skills. Submit a typed summary of each interview. [1 page, typed, double-spaced per interview]
   B. Based on your interviews and the topics discussed in the Interpersonal Relationship Skills class, what interpersonal relationship issues do you anticipate being most difficult for you in ministry? How can you prepare now to address the issues that you anticipate in the future? [1 page, typed, double-spaced]

The skill building exercises should be submitted as one document with a cover page. The identify collage should be submitted separately as a pdf file. The skill building exercises are due on 3/21/16, 11:59 p.m. (CST). The grade for late submissions will be reduced by 10 points. No reports will be accepted after 3/28/16.

VI. Personal Evaluation of Interpersonal Relationship Skills
In order to successfully complete the assignment, the following steps are necessary:
1. Assess your interpersonal relationship skills using the evaluation form attached to the syllabus. [3 typed pages]
2. Complete 8 interviews: two family members, two friends, two church members, and two community members. Utilize the forms attached to the syllabus. As an appendix to the paper, submit the name of each person interviewed, relationship category, and contact information (email or phone number is sufficient). Do not include the name of any person in your narrative report. [3-4 typed pages]
3. Develop a detailed plan for strengthening your interpersonal relationship skills. Reference relevant course materials in your plan; be specific and include internal notation (e.g. Bozeman & Smith, p. 101). [3 typed pages]
4. The report should be written in integrated narrative form, typed double-spaced, and submitted in one document with a cover page. You may use first person pronouns in your report. Question-and-answer format is not acceptable for this assignment.

The report is due on 4/11/16, 11:59 p.m. (CST). The grade for late submissions will be reduced by 10 points. No reports will be accepted after 4/18/16. This assignment is an embedded assignment that will be completed by all students for all sections of this course. The rubric for grading this assignment is attached to the syllabus. Please complete the assignment according to this rubric.

VII. Final Exam
Students will complete an open-book final exam. The exam is due at 1 p.m. (CST) on May 9, 2016. Email final exams to barlowsec@nobts.edu.
