

BCOT 5400 Old Testament Seminar (Exploring the Old Testament)
Baptist College Partnership
July 24–28, 2017
Dr. Archie England

I. NOBTS Mission Statement

The mission of the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminar is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the great commandments through the local church and its ministries.

II. NOBTS Core Values

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary has five core values: 1) Doctrinal Integrity, 2) Spiritual Vitality, 3) Mission Focus, 4) Characteristic Excellence, and 5) Servant Leadership. This course addresses Doctrinal Integrity specifically, in that it further develops the students' understanding of the Old Testament and issues specifically addressed therein. Spiritual Vitality is addressed through discussion of the ways in which the Old Testament remains applicable for the daily life of the students. Encouraging students to strive for thoroughness and readiness in handling God's word address Characteristic Excellence. Directing students to address spiritual values for daily life helps them to prepare for Servant Leadership, and interacting with the Covenant between God and the Israel address a Mission Focus. The core value focus for NOBTS this year is Characteristic Excellence.

III. Curriculum Competencies Addressed

Ministers need to develop specific competencies in order to have an effective ministry. Faculty members of NOBTS have developed a competency-based curriculum after identifying seven essential competencies necessary for effective ministry. All graduates are expected to have at least a minimum level of competency in all of the following seven areas:

Biblical Exposition: To interpret and communicate the Bible accurately.

Christian Theological Heritage: To understand and interpret Christian theological heritage and Baptist polity for the church.

Disciple Making: To stimulate church health through mobilizing the church for missions, evangelism, discipleship, and church growth.

Interpersonal Skills: To perform pastoral care effectively, with skills in communication and conflict management.

Servant Leadership: To serve churches effectively through team ministry.

Spiritual and Character Formation: To provide moral leadership by modeling and mentoring Christian character and devotion.

Worship Leadership: To facilitate worship effectively.

The curriculum competencies specifically addressed in this course are Biblical Exposition and Christian Theological Heritage. Other competencies are addressed in classroom discussion and department.

IV. Course Catalog Description

This seminar augments the student's knowledge in the areas covered in the course OTEN5300 Exploring the Old Testament, plus it gives the student one Biblical Studies elective hour. The prerequisites for participating in this seminar are the completion of at least 6 undergraduate hours in the area of Old Testament and having at least a “B” average in each course. These prerequisites are pending the evaluation of the student’s transcript by the Director of the Baptist College Partnership Program.

V. Student Learning Outcomes

By the completion of the course, students should be able to:

1. Describe the historical sweep of the Old Testament and identify key dates, people, and events.
2. Understand the significant issues regarding the three parts of the Hebrew canon.
3. Know the basic issues of introduction regarding each of the Hebrew canon books.
4. Be conversant in the current issues in Old Testament studies.

VI. Course Requirements

- A. PRE-WORK Due upon arrival to the first hour of the Monday class (1-2 pm). Read the following required texts and submit a written descriptive review of each of the above texts (including the following components):

- a short summary of the contents
- identification of the perspective(s) from which each text was written
- discussion of how each text has sought to address the study of the OT
- each review should be 6-8 pp. double-spaced
- written using good grammar, and reflecting acceptable form and style. Consult Turabian latest ed. for guidance on all matters of form and style

X. POST-WORK Prep

If. .Major Paper Topic Instructions: At any time during the first four days of class, submit a 1 page precis on the desired topic, including a bibliography of at least 10 pertinent sources. The professor will then schedule a meeting time to discuss ways to accomplish the desired research of the topic.

If. .Critical Book Review Option: Submit a list of the books which you have chosen to read and review.

Course Work Instructions

Instructions on Daily Research Assignments:

1. You will work with one or more students in a group designated by the professor.
2. Each group will prepare a summary paper on the topic and distribute copies for each of the seminar members. The papers will be academic in content and may be in the form of sentence outlines. The paper will be 2-3 pages single-spaced, plus bibliography. The bibliography should indicate which person read in which sources, with at least 10 sources consulted by each group member.
3. The bibliography should include your required texts to see if they contributed to the subject, plus other selected materials which may help answer specific questions about the subject. Be sure to consult some periodical literature on the subject. The bibliographies in the textbooks will provide a good starting place.
4. All the work should be written with good grammar and acceptable style. Do not use title pages; bibliography entries are to conform to Turabian, 7th ed. Papers are due at beginning of class, with your readings and papers serving as a basis for your class presentation.
5. The 15-30 minute presentation may include some creativity so that the material could be understandable to people in a church setting. After the presentation, the group should be ready to respond to questions on the topic.

Post-Workshop Assignment (Choose only one)

Note that by the last session of the workshop, each student must have discussed their proposed final project with the professor. The student should attempt to choose and narrow the research topic or list the texts chosen from each of the three areas.

A. 10-12 pp Research Paper (single-spaced)

Ideally, the topic of your research paper should be one which will enable you to strengthen or expand your understanding of an important subject in study of the Old Testament. For example, you may want to study in an area in which you've had fewer classes than in other areas of the Old Testament, or you may want to study a topic of particular interest to you.

The paper will be 10-12 pages—including footnotes but excluding bibliography pages, written in formal style according to Turabian, 7th ed., however, footnotes are required. The research paper is due in the professor's office no later than August 18, 2017.

B. Three Critical Book Reviews (each 4-5 pp single-spaced, plus Title Page)

Submit a written review of three texts, chosen from the following list. Include a summary of the contents and a critical evaluation of the positions held by the authors/contributors. Each review will be 4-5 pp., using good grammar and style. Follow Turabian, 7th ed. for guidance on parenthetical notes, formatting, title page, etc. These reviews are due in the professor's office no later than August 18, 2017.
