

CECM6353 The History and Philosophy of Collegiate Ministry
New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary
Christian Education Division

Beth Masters, Ph.D

Assistant Professor of College Ministry, Ministry Based
New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary
(504) 289-7074, bmasters@nobts.edu

The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church.

Purpose of the Course

The purpose of this course is to expose students to the history of college ministry in Southern Baptist Life while exploring the means and methods that have been used. Students will be asked to leave the course with the beginnings of a personal philosophy of collegiate ministry that can be used in any setting and context they may serve.

Core Value Focus

Doctrinal Integrity – Knowing that the Bible is the Word of God, we believe it, teach it, proclaim it, and submit to it. The doctrinal statements used in our evaluations are our Articles of Religious Belief and the Baptist Faith and Message Statement.

Spiritual Vitality – We are a worshiping community, with both personal spirituality and gathering together as a Seminary for the praise and adoration of God and instruction in His Word.

Mission Focus – We are not here merely to get an education or to give one. We are here to change the world by fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Characteristic Excellence – What we do, we do to the utmost of our abilities and resources as a testimony to the glory of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Servant Leadership – We follow the model of Jesus and exert leadership and influence through the nurture and encouragement of those around us.

For the 2019-2020 academic year the Core Value is Spiritual Vitality.

Curriculum Competencies Addressed

This course will address the following curriculum competencies:

1. Christian/Theological Heritage: Students will have an understanding of the history of college ministry in Southern Baptist life.

2. Disciple Making: Students will be exposed to different philosophies of college ministry as well as articulate a personal philosophy of ministry that centers in disciple making.

Course Description

This course is designed for students primarily who are specializing in the area of collegiate ministry. The history and philosophy of collegiate ministry are investigated with particular attention to ministry by and for Southern Baptists. The rationale behind the ministry to collegiate students is explored, along with significant historical milestones. The basic contexts of ministry to collegiate students are introduced. Other emphases include parachurch ministry, revivals and spiritual awakening among college students, and the future of ministry for college students. Further attention is given to ministry to the families of collegiate students.

Student Learning Objectives

The student involved in this course should be able to accomplish the following:

- Students will be able to synthesize the history of Protestant work on the college campus and the philosophies that have influenced the development of Southern Baptist work on the campus.
- Students will value the need for a personal philosophy of collegiate ministry.
- Students will participate with the local BCM in order to understand the campus minister's philosophy of ministry and see it worked out in the lives of students.

Assignments and Evaluation Criteria

Course Requirements:

1. Lead a Threaded Discussion: Each student will be responsible for leading a discussion board topic. Topics will be assigned by the professor. Students will create a threaded discussion with a minimum of three questions, will respond to students, and keep the conversation moving forward until all the material is covered.
2. Personal Philosophy: Students will develop a personal philosophy of collegiate ministry. The philosophy should be 5-7 pages, double-spaced, and follow the current edition of Turabian. The philosophy should include a biblical basis, the role of the director, the role of staff, the role of leadership, the role of students, and areas of ministry agreed upon by the class. This assignment will be discussed and agreed upon by the students and professor near the beginning of the semester.

3. Time in the field: Students will meet with a college minister, interview them on their philosophy of ministry, and spend 10 hours participating in their ministry.
4. Research Paper: Each student will prepare a research paper on a historical topic in collegiate ministry. Topics will be discussed and assigned by the professor. Each paper should follow the current edition of Turabian, use a 12 pt font in Times New Roman, and be 7-10 pages in length. Each paper should include 15-20 sources.
5. Reading: Students will turn in a reading statement with the percentage of assigned book they have read.
6. Class Participation: Students are expected to be prepared for class, participate in discussions, and be attentive to people presenting.

Classroom and On-line Decorum:

Classroom participation is expected for every class session due to the nature of the weekly format of the course. A positive attitude can only enhance the learning experience. Therefore, for the purposes of this class, a positive attitude and participation are defined as productive and interactive engagement with classroom presentations and classroom dialogues throughout a full class session. You cannot participate effectively if you are not focused on the subject matter while in the classroom. Consequently, the student is expected to:

- Come to class with a constructive point of view, prepared to interact with the readings and resources on the course topic in discussion groups and classroom dialogues.
- Turn off cell phones and not to accept any phone calls during class.
- Use laptops, iPads and other electronic devices appropriately to enhance class participation and abstain from social media (i.e., Face Book, messaging, etc.) and ministry responsibilities (e-mails, web site updates, etc.) during class sessions.

Netiquette

Appropriate Online Behavior Each student is expected to demonstrate appropriate Christian behavior when working online on Discussion Boards or whenever interaction occurs through web, digital, or other electronic medium. The student is expected to interact with other students in a fashion that will promote learning and respect for the opinions of others in the course. A spirit of Christian charity is expected at all times in the online environment.

Academic Honesty Policy

All graduate and undergraduate NOBTS students, whether on-campus, internet, or extension center students, are expected to adhere to the highest Christian standard of honesty and integrity when completing academic assignments for all courses in every delivery system format. The Bible provides our standard for academic integrity and honesty. This standard applies whether a student is taking tests, quizzes, exams, writing papers, completing Discussion Boards, or any other course requirement.
