Mission Statement
The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Core Value Focus
The seminary has five core values: Doctrinal Integrity, Spiritual Vitality, Mission Focus, Characteristic Excellence, and Servant Leadership. The core value focus for this academic year is Spiritual Vitality: We are a worshipping community, with both personal spirituality and gathering together as a Seminary for the praise and adoration of God and instruction in His Word.

Curriculum Competencies
All graduates of NOBTS are expected to have at least a minimum level of competency in each of the following areas: Biblical Exposition, Christian Theological Heritage, Disciple Making, Interpersonal Skills, Servant Leadership, Spiritual and Character Formation, and Worship Leadership. The curriculum competencies addressed in this course are: Disciple Making, Interpersonal Skills, and Servant Leadership.

Course Description
This course is designed to review specific leadership skills, which could be effectively employed in leading the women’s ministry program of a local church.

Student Learning Outcomes
By the completion of this course, the student should be able to accomplish the following:
1. Explore her own leadership style through textbook reading, class discussions, and the leadership project.
2. Examine different skills of leading and relating to others through textbook readings and the annotated bibliography.
3. Understand the unique challenges of leadership through textbook readings, class discussions, and the leadership interviews.
4. Integrate the essentials of leadership in the local church through the leadership project.
5. Evaluate personal leadership skills in her ministry context through textbook readings and the leadership project.

Textbooks
The following texts and resources are required reading for class discussions and are to be read in their entirety unless otherwise specified.

   A newer version (2014) of this book is available only as an eBook. Either will be acceptable for this course.

Course Teaching Methodology
Teaching Method. This course will utilize lecture and interactive discovery-learning. The student should expect different presentation formats to enhance the learning motif.

Units of Study. Topics will include:
1. What is Leadership
2. Biblical Foundations for Women as Leaders
3. Essentials of Leadership
4. Leadership Profiles (Components of Relationships)
5. Styles of Leadership
6. The Disciplined Life of a Leader (Self-Concept/Understanding Ourselves/Self-Evaluation)
7. Communication Skills of Leadership
8. Leadership Development (Group Discussions/Small Groups)
9. Leadership Challenges (Difficult People/Decision Making/Conflict Management)
10. Methodology for Leadership/Conclusion

Course Requirements
1. Attend class. Seminary policy states that a student may not miss any class due to the short length of the workshop.

2. Participate in class discussion. Please silence cell phones during class. No texting or internet use during class.

3. Write a Critical Review of each text. The student will write a 2-3 page critical review of each text outlining strengths and weaknesses of each book. The review should include... no more than ½ page of summary with the remaining information highlighting the stated purpose of the book, whether the author(s) achieved the stated purpose, and usefulness to ministry to women, due Nov. 1, 2019.

4. Develop an annotated bibliography. The student will develop an annotated bibliography of at least 10 works outside of the textbooks addressing leadership skills in the church, especially as it relates to women. Include the bibliographical information for each entry along with a 3-4 sentence description of the work, due Nov. 1, 2019.

5. Conduct Interviews. The student will conduct two interviews with women leaders in ministry (can be a paid staff or volunteer layperson, parachurch leader, or seminary professor). Submit a typed summary of the findings from the interviews which should include but are not limited to: (1) the leader’s philosophy of ministry; (2) hints/guidelines this leader uses in program planning; (3) ways this leader develops leaders within her ministry; and (4) the ‘take-away’ or highlight of the interview. Current Turabian guidelines for title page and format are to be followed, due Nov. 15, 2019.

6. Complete a Leadership Evaluation Project.

The project will include the evaluation of the student’s own leadership skills and establishment of personal leadership goals. The student will evaluate herself as a leader by considering all components of the class including:

- Leadership with church staff
- Leadership with women in the church
- Leadership with family

The student will develop her own mission statement as a leader and then list specific goals for her future development as a leader. Also, the student will outline plans for evaluating fulfillment of these goals.

The evaluation should be based on personal reflections and information gained from Leadership Evaluation Forms (forms will be provided in class) completed by a minimum of two people in the groups previously identified. In addition to evaluation of leadership skills, the student will make recommendations for personal improvement of skills.

This report should be 10-15 pages, typed double spaced following A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses and Dissertations by Kate Turabian, published by University of Chicago Press, due November 15, 2019.

All assignments should be emailed to christiansebastian@msn.com, according to their specified due dates listed above.
Evaluation of Grade
This course will follow the grading system for the Graduate School:

- A = 93 – 100  20% = Class Attendance/Participation
- B = 85-92  15% = Critical Reviews
- C = 77-84  15% = Annotated Bibliography
- D = 70-76  20% = Leadership Interviews
- F = Below 70  30% = Project

Course Policies

Late Work
An automatic 10-point deduction will be taken for work submitted after the due date. Additional points will be deducted based on the number of days the submission is late. Requirements must be received by the end of each semester or the student will receive a course grade of an “F”.

Netiquette: Appropriate Online Behavior
Each student is expected to demonstrate appropriate Christian behavior when working online on Discussion Boards or whenever interaction occurs through web, digital, or other electronic medium. The student is expected to interact with other students in a fashion that will promote learning and respect for the opinions of others in the course. A spirit of Christian charity is expected at all times in the online environment.
