Mission Statement
The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

We are here not merely to get an education or to give one. We are here to change the world by fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Core Value Focus
The seminary has five core values.
1. Doctrinal Integrity: Knowing that the Bible is the Word of God, we believe it, teach it, proclaim it, and submit to it. This course addresses Doctrinal Integrity specifically by preparing students to grow in understanding and interpreting of the Bible.
2. Spiritual Vitality: We are a worshiping community emphasizing both personal spirituality and gathering together as a Seminary family for the praise and adoration of God and instruction in His Word. Spiritual Vitality is addressed by reminding students that a dynamic relationship with God is vital for effective ministry.
3. Mission Focus: We are not here merely to get an education or to give one. We are here to change the world by fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries. This course addresses Mission Focus by helping students understand the biblical foundations for fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments.
4. Characteristic Excellence: What we do, we do to the utmost of our abilities and resources as a testimony to the glory of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Characteristic Excellence is addressed by preparing students to excel in their ability to interpret Scripture, which is foundational to effective ministry.
5. Servant Leadership: We follow the model of Jesus and exert leadership and influence through the nurture and encouragement of those around us. Servant Leadership is modeled by classroom deportment.

The core value focus for this academic year is spiritual vitality.
Curriculum Competencies

NOBTS faculty members realize that all ministers need to develop specific competencies if they are going to have an effective ministry. To increase the likelihood of NOBTS graduates having an effective ministry, the faculty developed a competency-based curriculum after identifying seven essential competencies necessary for effective ministry. All graduates are expected to have at least a minimum level of competency in all of the following areas:

5. Servant Leadership: To serve churches effectively through team ministry.
6. Spiritual and Character Formation: To provide moral leadership by modeling and mentoring Christian character and devotion.

Course Requirements

1. BLACKBOARD: NOBTS ITC will create an account on Blackboard and enroll you in this course.
   DUE: First Friday of Week 1

2. VIDEO DISCUSSIONS: The student MUST participate in three video conference sessions, using a web camera and broadband internet-connected computer. These 90-minute interactive sessions will take place on specified dates and times. Enrollment size may necessitate dividing the class into two equal sections and establishing a second weekday for another section of video sessions. You must sign-up via the course Blackboard (under “Course Video Conferences”) for one of the sections; it is first-come first-served. Once a section fills you must register in the other section. Detailed instructions for connecting will be sent via e-mail to students who have indicated by the announced deadline the intent to attend the video conference. The sessions will be recorded. Students must attend or observe all 3 sessions. This requirement is a part of class participation.
   DUE: Week 3 (Unit 2); Week 7 (Unit 6); Week 12 (Unit 11)

3. WEEKLY LEARNING UNITS: This online design is comprised of fourteen (14) learning units. Each learning unit contains one week of course work. The current learning unit closes at midnight (central time) on Saturday and a new learning unit opens each week on Sunday. Each student is encouraged to access the new unit as soon as possible in order to become aware of the classwork necessary for that week. Any assignments due as part of a learning unit are due by midnight (central time) Saturday of the particular learning unit. The learning design is sequential and cumulative. Therefore, each student is encouraged to download the course content and materials for each week in order to access for later assignments and prepare for the mid-term and final exams. Organizing the materials by learning unit number (i.e., 1, 2, 3, etc.) may prove helpful for later access and review.
4. ASSIGNED READINGS & QUizzes: You are responsible for completing assigned readings from the course textbooks and materials, and preparing to take quizzes from the readings and materials as indicated in the unit designs. The readings quizzes for the week will be released on Sunday and remain accessible until midnight (Central Time) of the week they are due. These are closed book quizzes. No make-up quizzes will be offered.

5. EXPOSITORY SERMON PROJECTS (ESP): These assignments are to be typed and double-spaced, using Times New Roman 12-pitch font, and cite appropriate original sources using the parenthetical option per current Turabian format. Include your name, e-mail address, and title of the assignment in the upper-right hand corner of the assignment. See descriptions and examples on course Blackboard. Each assignment will be submitted on the course Blackboard, under “Assignments.” Coherence, clarity, relevance, form, accuracy, freshness of expression will be included as a part of the evaluation of these assignments.

Help for Writing Papers at “The Write Stuff”
NOBTS maintains a Writing Center designed to improve English writing at the graduate level. Students can receive writing guides, tips, and valuable information to become better writers.

Plagiarism on Written Assignments
NOBTS has a no tolerance policy for plagiarism. Plagiarism in certain cases may result in expulsion from the seminary. See the NOBTS Student Handbook and Graduate Catalog for definition, penalties, and policies associated with plagiarism. Students are given the task of writing in order to help them learn how to think critically about the ideas of others and to present the results of their analysis in a readable form. Plagiarism defeats these purposes by cheating the student out of an opportunity to grow. Plagiarism is a failure to distinguish between the work of the student and the work of others, either intentionally or unintentionally. Students that plagiarize will be reported to the Dean of Students and a grade of “F” will be assigned. Remember the words of the proverb: “Whoever walks in integrity walks securely, but he who makes his ways crooked will be found out” (Prov 10:19).
Disclaimer
Flexibility is a critical attitude to ministry faithfulness. Therefore, the student will be expected to keep a good attitude when things change. This independent study proposes a course of study for a given time period. However, occasionally things change. The professor reserves the right to adjust the syllabus when he reasonably thinks that doing so will enhance the learning experience of the student.

In Case Of A Declared Campus Evacuation
Students are to check the NOBTS electronic Blackboard at www.nobts.edu within four days of evacuation.
