Mission Statement
New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and Leavell College prepare servants to walk with Christ, proclaim His truth, and fulfill His mission.

Core Value Focus
The seminary has five core values: Doctrinal Integrity, Spiritual Vitality, Mission Focus, Characteristic Excellence, and Servant Leadership. The core value focus for this academic year is Mission Focus: We are not here merely to get an education or to give one. We are here to change the world by fulfilling the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries. The doctrinal statements used in our evaluations are our Articles of Religious Belief and the Baptist Faith and Message Statement.

Curriculum Competencies
All graduates of NOBTS are expected to have at least a minimum level of competency in each of the following areas: Biblical Exposition, Christian Theological Heritage, Disciple Making, Interpersonal Skills, Servant Leadership, Spiritual and Character Formation, and Worship Leadership. The curriculum competencies addressing in this course are: Disciple Making and Servant Leadership.

Course Description
This course is designed to lead students into a greater understanding of their cultures and the cultures of the people around them, and to equip them to gain a deeper relationship with God and others to whom they minister. Students will examine strategies for missions involvement on an individual and group basis among women through the church.

Student Learning Outcomes
At the conclusion of the semester, the student will:
1. Examine biblical teachings about missions.
2. Understand mission efforts of women in Southern Baptist life.
3. Value multicultural ministry and mission efforts in their ministry to women.
4. Develop various strategies for missions and ministry to women at the community, national, and international levels.
Textbooks
The following texts and resources are required reading for class discussions and are to be read in their entirety unless otherwise specified.

Course Teaching Methodology
The course will involve the following methodologies: lecture and interactive discovery-learning. It will be offered on the main campus during a three-day academic workshop.

Course Requirements

1. Attend class. This course is in the workshop format. Seminary policy states that a student may not miss any class due to the short length of the workshop. Review the syllabus, required reading, and course outline and download materials as needed.

2. Participate in class discussion. Please silence cell phones during class. No texting or internet use during class.

3. Read the assigned textbooks and other reading assignments. Reading assignments will include readings from the textbook, Scripture, and other sources. The student will provide a written statement of completion of all reading assignments. Due: Friday, November 20

4. Develop an annotated bibliography of at least 5 works outside of the textbooks addressing multicultural ministry and missions. Include the bibliographical information for each entry along with a 3-4 sentence description of the work. No more than half of the sources can be from the internet (and these should be academic or research-based). Due: Friday, November 6.

5. Create a PowerPoint Presentation about a woman who has contributed significantly to Southern Baptist missions efforts (past or current). Presentations should be 10-15 slides covering the topics of biographical information, contributions, and implications for multicultural ministry and missions for women. The slideshow presentation will be uploaded to the discussion board to share with classmates. Due: Friday, November 6.

6. Complete a project report as described below. The student will evaluate a multicultural ministry and its strategies for reaching persons from different cultures (may be a ministry of your church or an independent ministry). In this report the student will also evaluate the present missions programs of their own church and propose strategies for increasing missions involvement. Due: Friday, November 20

Part One: Evaluation of a Multicultural Ministry

a. Biblical basis for ministry
b. Description of present multi-cultural ministry
c. Evaluation of present multi-cultural ministry
d. Role of the local church in the ministry
e. Role of volunteers in the ministry (include discussion about the way in which volunteers are recruited, trained, and utilized in the ministry)
f. Report should be based on 3 interviews: 1 with leader of the ministry and 2 with participating members or volunteers of the ministry

Part Two: Evaluation of Your Church’s Missions Programs

a. Description of present missions programs
b. Evaluation of present missions programs
c. Recommendations of future missions programs
d. Integration of missions into other church programs

The project should be 10-15 pages, typed double spaced, following A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Thesis, and Dissertations 7th edition. The manual is by Kate Turabian and is published by University of Chicago Press.

All assignments should be emailed to Dr. Emily Dean at edean@nobts.edu, according to their specific due dates listed above.

Evaluation of Grade
This course will follow the grading system for the Graduate School.

A = 93-100

Help for Writing Papers at “The Write Stuff”
NOBTS maintains a Writing Center designed to improve English writing at the graduate level. Students can receive writing guides, tips, and valuable information to help in becoming a better writer.
Academic Policies
Academic policies related to absences, grading scale, final examination schedules, and other topics can be found in the current online catalog: New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary Graduate Catalog.

Policy for Graduating Seniors
Graduating Seniors are responsible for alerting the professor of your intention to graduate. All of your assignments must be completed by noon (12:00 PM) on the Wednesday prior to commencement exercises.

Netiquette
Netiquette refers to appropriate online behavior in Blackboard or other online discussions. Each student is expected to demonstrate appropriate Christian behavior when working online on Discussion Boards or whenever interaction occurs through web, digital, or other electronic medium. The student is expected to interact with other students in a fashion that will promote learning and respect for the opinions of others in the course. A spirit of Christian charity is expected at all times in the online environment.

Academic Honesty Policy
All graduate and undergraduate NOBTS students, whether on-campus, internet, or extension center students, are expected to adhere to the highest Christian standard of honesty and integrity when completing academic assignments for all courses in every delivery system format. The Bible provides our standard for academic integrity and honesty. This standard applies whether a student is taking tests, quizzes, exams, writing papers, completing Discussion Boards, or any other course requirement.

Plagiarism on Written Assignments
NOBTS has a no tolerance policy for plagiarism. Plagiarism in certain cases may result in expulsion from the seminary. See the NOBTS Student Handbook for definition, penalties, and policies associated with plagiarism.

Late Work
An automatic 5-point deduction will be taken for work submitted after the due date. Additional points will be deducted based on the number of days the submission is late. Requirements must be received by the end of each semester or the student will receive a course grade of an “F”.
