The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Purpose of the Course

This course is designed to assist students in understanding the Islamic teaching about Jesus of Nazareth and extend a gospel witness to them solidly based in biblical theology employing several apologetic methods. Among the curriculum competencies addressed in this course are Christian theological heritage, disciple making, and biblical exposition. New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary has five core values: Doctrinal Integrity, Spiritual Vitality, Mission Focus, Characteristic Excellence, and Servant Leadership. This course addresses each of these values in several ways. The President has designated Servant Leadership as the Core Value for 2017-18. This course enables students to fulfill the great commission and our mission among Muslims.

Core Value Focus

Spiritual Vitality – We are a worshipping community emphasizing both personal spirituality and gathering together as a Seminary family for the praise and adoration of God and instruction in His Word. The strongest witness of the living Christ is the vital walk and testimony of the witness.

Curriculum Competencies Addressed

This course will address Biblical Exposition, Theological and Historical Perspective, Servant Leadership, Interpersonal Relationship, and Disciple Making.

Course Description

This course of study involves the student in a historical, philosophical, and theological exploration in the Islamic understanding of the person and work of Jesus Christ. The student will also examine how Muslim apologists employ these teachings and develop apologetic methods to challenge these views. Students will engage in guided research into Muslim teachings of who Jesus is and their understandings of his God-given task and work. Negative and positive apologetics methods needed to address Muslims in Christocentric ways will be topics of discussion throughout this course.
Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the course the student will:

- Be familiar with Islamic Christology and Muslim teachings about Jesus Christ and his ministry.
- Appreciate the relationship of Islamic culture to Muslim views of Jesus and appreciate the need for theological and apologetic strategies to address this complex worldview.
- Be equipped to engage in Christian apologetics by responding to Islamic teaching about Jesus and by sensitive explanation of the work and person of Christ to Muslims.

Required Reading (see reading schedule below)

Primary:
Qur’ān – A PDF of Ali Quli Qara’i’s translation is provided BlackBoard (you may also read and compare multiple English translations online at: http://qb.gomen.org/QuranBrowser/).

Hadīth – A PDF summary of the main hadiths on Jesus is provided in BlackBoard.

Books:

Articles/Essays/Chapters (provided in PDF by the professor in BlackBoard):

Tennent, Timothy C. “Is the Father of Jesus the God of Muhammad?,” In Theology in the Context of World Christianity: How the Global Church is Influencing the Way We Think About and Discuss Theology, 25–51. Grand Rapids, Mich.: Zondervan, 2007.

Assignments and Evaluation Criteria

NOTE: The professor will NOT accept emailed assignments; everything must be submitted via BlackBoard in PDF format.

1. REFLECTIVE SUMMARIES (50%): Students are required to complete the assigned reading for each unit from the required textbooks/articles/etc. as listed in the schedule below. You will then write a 1-2 page (max) single-spaced reflective summary over each reading assignment for each unit (e.g., if you have three reading assignments for a particular unit, you’d have a three-page reflective summary). The summary should include all of the following components clearly marked by headings for each unit’s reading assignment: (1) content summary, (2) positive/negative evaluations, and (3) applications to your understanding of Muslim views about Jesus. Please combine each unit’s summaries into one PDF document and submit that reflective summary via BlackBoard (see schedule below). No title page is necessary for these assignments; however, you should include your name at the top of each page of the combined summary along with the title of the chapter/article/etc. you’re summarizing. There will be no make-ups and late assignments will receive a zero; however, your one lowest grade will be dropped.

2. DISCUSSION BOARDS (20%): Each unit includes at least one discussion board (DB) related to the reading assignments. Posts should be from 400-500 words (max). Additionally, you’re required to provide a 100–200 word (max) response to at least one of your classmates’ answers (excluding the introductory DB). Please abide by the submission dates provided in the schedule below. There will be no make-ups and late assignments will receive a zero; however, your one lowest grade will be dropped.

3. RESEARCH PAPER (30%): Each student is required to write a double-spaced research paper in conformity with NOBTS guidelines of 15-20 pages (max) on a topic related to “Jesus and Islam.” Students who have questions should consult with the professor or your NOBTS librarian via email/phone well in advance of any due dates. Additionally, students are to submit via BlackBoard a one page proposal abstract by midnight 3/18 (students should use Spring Break to work on the paper). The abstract should include a single-spaced summary or outline of your research topic along with a list of at least 5 books/essays/articles/chapters and 3 online sources. Your paper is due by midnight on 5/17. The proposal abstract is a part of your grade. Below is a rubric that will be used to grade your research papers:
   a. Proposal Abstract (10 pts)
   b. Format & Organization (10 pts)
   c. Grammar & Style (15 pts)
   d. Use of Sources (15 pts)
   e. Content & Arguments (50 pts)

Course Policies

Appropriate Behavior
Each student is expected to demonstrate appropriate Christian behavior when working with and communicating with others. The student is expected to interact with other students in a fashion that will promote learning and respect for the opinions of others in the course. A spirit of Christian charity is expected at all times.

Academic Honesty Policy
All graduate and undergraduate NOBTS students, whether on-campus, internet, or extension center students, are expected to adhere to the highest Christian standard of honesty and integrity when completing academic assignments for all courses in every delivery system format. The Bible provides our standard for academic integrity and honesty. This standard applies whether a student is taking tests, quizzes, or exams, writing papers, completing Discussion Boards, or performing any other course requirement

Grading
The NOBTS grading pattern applies to this course.
