Mission Statement
New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and Leavell College prepare servants to walk with Christ, proclaim His truth, and fulfill His mission.

Course Description
In this course, students are introduced to Christian missions through a brief examination of biblical and theological foundations and a historical overview. Attention is given to the International and North American Mission Boards of the Southern Baptist Convention, including their administration and programs, and to the contributions of the Woman’s Missionary Union. Particular attention is given to strategic concerns affecting the future of the mission enterprise.

Student Learning Outcomes
1. The student should be able to apply the biblical including doctrine, theological, and cultural foundations for missiology to the local church and its ministries.
2. The student should be able to demonstrate appreciation for the missions heritage of Southern Baptists.
3. The student should be able to articulate and advocate missions among Southern Baptists in the local church and its ministries in its community, and in partnership with the association, state convention, North American Mission Board (NAMB), and the International Mission Board (IMB) of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Course Textbook
The Holy Bible (Print or Electronic)
Approved book on missions or missionary biography
Possible Blackboard readings

Course Teaching Methodology
A variety of teaching methods will be utilized such as class presentations by the professor using Power Point and handouts. Other teaching methods include small and large group discussion, multi-media presentations, utilization of missions related websites, and other communication mediums.
Course Requirements

Pre-Intensive Assignments
All Pre-Intensive Assignments should be submitted on Blackboard under the appropriate Assignment by the beginning of the first intensive session on Monday, July 26, 1 P.M. listed below under 2-3. Be sure to “send” your assignments once you upload them to Blackboard. This is an extra step that is sometimes overlooked and can result in a late paper.

1. Blackboard. Each student must maintain a valid e-mail address recorded in your Blackboard account at all times. If you have trouble using Blackboard, please contact the ITC department of NOBTS at blackboardhelpdesk@nobts.edu or call (504) 816-8180.

2. Reading.
   A. Read all required reading assignments from the textbook, Discovering the Mission of God: Best Missional Practices for the 21st Century. (See Course Textbook above). Chapters to read: Introduction, Chapters 1-12; 13-14 (optional); 15-20; 21(optional); 22-33; 34-37(Choose 2 chapters); 38. Submit on the assignments folder labeled “Textbook Reading” the percentage of chapters read. For example, 90%, 100%; 85%.
   B. Select five (5) chapters from the text and write a minimum of one double-spaced page for each chapter which includes: (1) highlights from the chapter and (2) ways to apply the material in a ministry context. Submit on the Assignment folder labeled “Chapter Summaries.”

During Intensive Assignment

Reflection Paper. Write a 3-4 double-spaced page reflection paper on how you sense God’s leadership to be involved in missions? Describe how you have examined the missionary call to determine whether or not God has or is calling you to service as a long-term missionary at this point in time. Include how you will be available for possible short term missionary service in your ministry if not called to long-term missionary service. Discuss further aspects of how you will be involved in missions. Chapter thirty-eight of the textbook provides helpful insights for exploring a missionary call in one’s life and should be consulted for this reflection paper. Some reflections on chapter 38 are required. The paper should include appropriate references to Bible verses and passages and other sources as needed. It may be written using first person. The reflection paper will be graded for clarity, content, creative expression, and proper grammatical expression and form.

Due: Thursday, July 29 2021, 7:59 AM. Submit on Blackboard under Assignments before the beginning of the first class session of the day.
Post-Intensive Assignments

All post-intensive assignments should be submitted on Blackboard under the appropriate Assignment. Be sure to “send” your assignments once you upload them to Blackboard. This is an extra step that is sometimes overlooked and can result in a late paper.

1. Satisfactorily complete and turn in the Take Home Final Exam. Due: Friday, August 6, 11:59 p.m.

2. Missions Book Review.
   A. Read a missions book approved by the professor and write a critique of the book.
      i. The book chosen to read may come from the course syllabus bibliography or another book approved by the professor (the book should not be one used in another course).
      ii. Write a minimum of a two full double-spaced page critique, using one inch margins, 12 point Times New Roman, a cover page, headings. See c. below, and use proper Turabian form. The book critique should include the following:
         a. Briefly summarize the contents of the book. Discuss the major topics or themes of the book. Summaries may be done for each chapter but covering the main themes is more important.
         b. Discuss two concepts, principles, or ways to apply concepts from the book that would be helpful to someone involved in ministry. Include how these points could impact your own life and ministry.
         c. Use Headings for each section in the body of the paper: Summary, Discussion. Each section should be approximately one full page of text.

   B. Due: Friday, August 13, 11:59 p.m.

3. Spend at least three hours in volunteer service at a North American Mission Board, state convention, or local church/association community service ministry site. One goal of the assignment will be for you to be involved in ministry beyond the four walls of a church building or traditional ministry structures. This project may be completed any time between registration and the due date below. Write a brief summary of your experience, along with personal reflection on the experience. The typed summary and reflection should be one to two double spaced full typed pages. (Students who are not Southern Baptist may discuss with the professor an appropriate substitute for this assignment.) Due: Friday, August 13, 11:59 p.m.

4. Research and write a strategy designed to enable a local church to implement an Acts 1:8 strategy which includes intentional local (Jerusalem); regional (Judea); North America (Samaria) and international missions (ends of the earth) with direct involvement by church members. If your church already has an Acts 1:8 strategy, develop your plan for how to expand its ministry in the four areas or develop an Acts 1:8 strategy for another existing church or planned new church. This plan should be a minimum of six to eight full double-spaced pages in length. Acts 1:8 churches should commit a church “to a comprehensive missions involvement in our community (our Jerusalem), state (our Judea), continent (our Samaria), and world (our ends of the earth).” Resources about an Acts 1:8 church are found on Blackboard for the course.
A. Your paper will be a brief description of how you will carry out missions in the four geographic areas and separately how to use each of the eight commitments for your church. (See “Acts One 8” Blackboard resources for a description of the eight commitments. Begin your plan with a brief description of your church and its present involvement in missions. An overview of information on the Acts 1:8 Challenge will be given during the course. Use headings: Introduction, Description of Church, Geographic Areas of Missions, Commitments, Conclusion.

B. Examples of Acts 1:8 churches may be found in articles from available online through http://imb.org and http://www.namb.net For detailed information on an Acts 1:8, review materials on Blackboard for the course. The rubric for grading this assignment is attached to this syllabus. Please complete the assignment according to the syllabus guidelines and this rubric.

C. Due: Friday, August 20, 11:59 P.M. Submit on Blackboard on the correct Assignments folder
