2019 TEL HADID EXPEDITION

ISRAEL • JUNE 2-27, 2019

New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary's Moskau Institute of Archaeology, Liberty University School of Divinity, and Tel Aviv University are excavating ancient Tel Hadid in Israel. The dig begins June 2 and concludes on June 27. Volunteers working the first week should arrive in Israel no later than May 31 to participate in the pre-dig Jerusalem tour, and those working the last week should plan departures for June 28 or after.

THE DIG

Join in the archaeological excavation of Tel Hadid, ancient city that was resettled by the Assyrians after the fall of Israel in 722 BC. The site was also home to Hebrew people who returned to Israel after the Exile (Ezra 2:33; Nehemiah 7:37; Nehemiah 11:34). Visit hadidexpedition.org for more about the site history and the reasons for the excavation.

WEEKEND TRAVEL

The expedition will arrange field trips to important archaeological sites and regions of Israel (i.e. Caesarea Maritima, Galilee, Hazor, Jerusalem, Lachish, Masada, Megiddo, and others). Trips are $50 per day and participants will be responsible for meals during the tours. The June 1 tour of Jerusalem is free for participants.

ACADEMIC CREDIT

Up to 9 credit hours of undergraduate, graduate, and doctoral coursework is available during the dig. Standard tuition and fees apply. The Tel Hadid excavation provides a great opportunity for Ph.D. students or faculty members at other schools to earn credit in the field of archaeology. Contact Dr. Dennis Cole (rdcole@nobts.edu) for details.

TRIP COST

The trip cost is $750 for 1 week; $1300 for 2 weeks; $1950 for 3 weeks; and $2400 for 4 weeks (extra days $100 / day) + airfare. Costs cover room, board, transportation to and from the airport, and the June 1 tour of Jerusalem. Preference will be given to two-week participants.
