The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Purpose of Course

The purpose of the course is to equip the seminary student to be an effective youth minister in the local church, creating environments which partner with families in discipleship of students.

Our Core Values

The seminary has five core values. The focal core value for 2018-2019 is Doctrinal Integrity. This course supports the five core values of the seminary.

Doctrinal Integrity – Knowing that the Bible is the Word of God, we believe it, teach it, proclaim it, and submit to it. The doctrinal statements used in our evaluations are our Articles of Religious Belief and the Baptist Faith and Message Statement.

Curriculum Competencies Addressed

NOBTS faculty members realize that all ministers need to develop specific competencies if they are going to have an effective ministry. To increase the likelihood of NOBTS graduates having an effective ministry, the faculty developed a competency-based curriculum after identifying seven essential competencies necessary for effective ministry. All graduates are expected to have at least a minimum level of competency in all of the following areas:

Biblical Exposition: to interpret and communicate the Bible accurately.

Christian Theological Heritage: To understand and interpret Christian theological heritage and Baptist polity for the church.

Disciplemaking: To stimulate church health through mobilizing the church for missions, evangelism, discipleship, and church growth.

Interpersonal Skills: To perform pastoral care effectively, with skills in communication and conflict management.

Servant Leadership: To serve churches effectively through team ministry.

Spiritual and Character Formation: To provide moral leadership by modeling and mentoring Christian character and devotion.

Worship Leadership: To facilitate worship effectively.

This course will address the following curriculum competencies:

1. Biblical Exposition: Students will explore biblical foundations and rationale for youth ministry.
2. Disciple Making: Students will examine developmental and educational issues that play a significant role in the development of adolescent faith.
3. Interpersonal Skills: Students will develop or improve the skills necessary for relating to and communicating well with teenagers, parents, youth volunteers, church staff, and the church body as a whole.
4. Servant Leadership: Students will consider the nature of servant leadership and explore practical application within the work of youth ministry.
5. Spiritual and Character Formation: Devotional content will help students address their own spiritual and developmental needs in areas related to the topic of each session.

Course Catalog Description

The focus of this course is to help church leaders plan, coordinate, lead, and evaluate youth ministry in a local church. Students will learn to develop a biblical philosophy of youth ministry and how to organize youth ministry in the church. Emphasis will be given to ministry with students, parents, and adult volunteers. Additional study will include the various roles of the youth minister as a staff member, family member, and community leader. Special attention will also be given to relational discipleship in student ministry.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the course, the student will be able to:

Cognitive

- Formulate and articulate a biblical philosophy and purpose statement for ministry to youth.
- Identify resources for youth ministry and youth ministers.

Affective

- Understand and distinguish between the roles of the minister of youth and other youth workers.

Psychomotor

- Demonstrate an understanding of personnel issues in youth ministry for both paid staff and volunteer workers.
- Demonstrate understanding and ability to implement the essential components of youth ministry programming for the local church setting.
- Demonstrate competency regarding the administrative functions of youth ministry.

Course Teaching Methodology

Units of Study

Unit 1: Philosophy and Biblical Foundation for Youth Ministry

Unit 2: Leading Youth

Unit 3: Leading Volunteers

Unit 4: Leading Parent Ministry

Course Teaching Methodology

The course will involve the following methodologies: reading assignments, reviewing lecture material, individual learning assignments, and online interaction.

Format

This course is taught online.

Course Requirements

1. Blackboard Discussion Board (150 points; 15% of semester grade)

Each student is expected to participate in online interaction through the Blackboard Discussion Board. This is your class participation grade. Discussion board posts are due each week before midnight on Sunday night.

2. Theological Essay (50 points; 5% of semester grade)

Submit a 2-3 page essay, entitled “Why I Believe Student Ministry is Biblical” to Blackboard. Cite references and use short phrases or verses, but avoid long quotations of Bible verses. Due on Blackboard before midnight September 9.

3. Book Review (150 points; 15% of semester grade)

Write a 3-4 page review of one of the four book review text listed on the syllabus. The review must include the following:

1. Identify the author’s purpose for writing. Was he able to communicate his purpose?
2. Provide a brief overview of the key ideas from the text (about 1-2 pages).
3. Evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of the book. Note: Strengths and weaknesses are not likes or dislikes, but an academic evaluation that should be supported by the course texts or content (about 1 page).
4. Answer the question, “Did the book help your overall view of Youth Ministry? If so, how did it help? If not, why not?”

Due on Blackboard before midnight Sunday, October 14.

4. Youth Minister Interview (100 points; 10% of semester grade)

- a) Interview an experienced youth minister in person, by phone, or video conference.
- b) The questions to cover include:
 1. What is your youth ministry philosophy/strategy?
 2. What is your program design for implementing the philosophy?
 3. What is your process for developing leaders?
 4. How do you maintain personal balance?
 5. What advice would you give to a first-time youth minister?
- c) In addition, obtain a copy of the youth ministry budget and calendar, as well as some publicity pieces that can be included in the Operation Manual assignment.
- d) Write a summary of the interview (3-4 page) that includes some background on the person interviewed as well as the response to the questions asked.

Due on Blackboard before midnight Sunday, November 4.

5. Philosophy of Youth Ministry (150 points; 15% of semester grade)

Develop a personal philosophy of youth ministry (3-4 pages), to include:

1. Mission – what you want to accomplish
2. Core values – the values that will guide the process
3. Vision – the specific way you will engage in ministry
4. Strategy – how you will accomplish your vision (programs and events)
5. Measures of success – tangible evidence that the ministry is effective

Due on Blackboard before midnight Sunday, November 14.

6. Operations Manual (350 points; 35% of semester grade)

- a) Create an operations manual for youth ministry. Find material and resources for your manual by contacting other youth ministers, going back through your files, or including material from class. Minimally, your manual should include:
 1. Strategy and systems for doing youth ministry

2. Job descriptions of volunteer and paid positions
 3. Name and description of each component of the youth program
 4. Sample calendar
 5. Annual youth ministry budget
 6. Disciplinary policies
 7. Parent ministry strategy
 8. Copies of publicity for youth ministry
- b) Scan or take digital photos of sample items and include them in the document.
- Due on Blackboard before midnight Sunday, December 9 at 11:59 PM.

7. Final Exam (50 points; 5% of semester grade)

- a) The exam will be objective in nature (multiple choice, matching, listing, and true-false) and cover material from the class lectures and class reading assignments.
- b) Except for emergencies (death in immediate family, serious illness), a make-up exam will not be given. Make-up exams will be given only by permission, must be scheduled in advance with the professor, and must be taken within one week of the scheduled exam.

Final Exam due before midnight Sunday, December 13.

Course Policies

Reading Assignments

Students are responsible for completing all reading assignments.

Absences

In the online format, attendance is assessed through completed assignments for each unit: Blackboard discussion, Unit Quiz completion during the assigned period of time, and assignment submission by the due date.

Professor’s Policy on Late Assignments

All work is due on the assigned date and time in the syllabus. Assignments are due before midnight on the day they are due. Late assignments will be penalized an initial 10 percent penalty and one percent for each day after the due date. No assignments will be accepted more than two weeks after the original due date. Submit all assignments electronically on Blackboard. Do not send files as attachments via email to the professor.

Exam Policy

When exams are given via Blackboard, students will have a 24 hour window in which to take the exam. There should be no reason for any exams to be missed. If dire illness, personal emergency, or school sponsored events prevent access to the internet, the student will be responsible for contacting the professor before the exam to secure permission to schedule the exam and to schedule an appointment for a make-up exam. Failure to do so will result in an automatic grade of 0.

Professor's Availability and Assignment Feedback

The student may contact the professor at any time using the email address provided in the course syllabus. The professor will make every effort to return answers to emailed questions within a 24-hour period of time. Assignments requiring grading will be returned to the student within a reasonable period of time. Student feedback on graded assignments will be provided through the grading rubric located in the student's Blackboard Grade Book. The student will find comments in the grading rubric, as well as on graded paper assignments. The student may also email the course grader with questions regarding grading.

Style and Formatting

All assignments are to be typed, double-spaced with a 12-point font, Times New Roman, with 1-inch margins. Include your name, date of submission, and the assignment title on the cover page.

Help for Writing Papers at "The Write Stuff"

This is the official NOBTS Writing Center online help site for writing academic papers and essays. <http://www.nobts.edu/writing/default.html> You will discover writing guides, tips, and valuable information to help you become a better writer. Go here for Turabian helps and guidelines.

In addition, the website Grammarly (www.grammarly.com) will help you become a better writer. Eazypaper (www.eazypaper.com) will help you automatically format your sources. Moreover, the YMI resource page (www.youthministryinstitute.org) has several helpful links, including a video to help you create page numbers in Microsoft Word.

Academic Honesty Policy

All graduate and undergraduate NOBTS students, whether on-campus, internet, or extension center students, are expected to adhere to the highest Christian standard of honesty and integrity when completing academic assignments for all courses in every delivery system format. The Bible provides our standard for academic integrity and honesty. This standard applies whether a student is taking tests, quizzes, exams, writing papers, completing Discussion Boards, or any other course requirement.

Plagiarism on Written Assignments

NOBTS has a no tolerance policy for plagiarism. Please be aware that plagiarism in certain cases may result in expulsion from the seminary. Refer to the NOBTS Student Handbook <http://www.nobts.edu/resources/pdf/student-services/NOBTSHandbook.pdf> where the definition, penalties and policies associated with plagiarism are clearly defined.

Extra Credit

The policy for extra credit in this course is students can submit an additional book review for extra credit. The extra book review will not substitute or replace any course assignment.

Blackboard and ITC Technical Support

Blackboard is the instructional platform used in this class. Please make sure that your contact information is accurate and up-to-date. If you need assistance, please contact the Information Technology Center (Hardin Student Center 290 or call 504.816.8180). Here are other helpful links to ITC assistance. Academic Policies

Academic policies related to absences, grading scale, final examination schedules, and other topics can be found in the current online catalog: New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary Graduate Catalog.

Policy for Graduating Seniors

Graduating Seniors are responsible for alerting the professor of your intention to graduate. All of your assignments must be completed by noon (12:00 PM) on the Wednesday prior to commencement exercises.

Netiquette

Netiquette refers to appropriate online behavior in Blackboard or other online discussions. Each student is expected to demonstrate appropriate Christian behavior when working online on Discussion Boards or whenever interaction occurs through web, digital, or other electronic medium. The student is expected to interact with other students in a fashion that will promote learning and respect for the opinions of others in the course. A spirit of Christian charity is expected at all times in the online environment.

Grading Scale

Each student's final grade will be based on your total accumulation of points as indicated under the Assignments and Evaluation Criteria section of this syllabus, according to the grading scale in the NOBTS catalog.

A 93-100 B 85-92 C 77-84 D 70-76 F 69 and below

Special Needs

If you need an accommodation for any type of disability, please email me to discuss any modifications you may need.

Withdrawal from the Course

The administration has set deadlines for withdrawal. These dates and times are published on the academic calendar. Administration procedures must be followed. You are responsible to handle withdrawal requirements. A professor cannot issue a withdrawal. You must complete the proper paperwork to ensure you will not receive a final grade of “F” in the course if you choose not to engage in the online class once you are enrolled.
