Course Description

Students will evaluate case studies involving past and current United States Supreme Court cases that relate to the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States. Required Textbooks

Recommended Texts

Course Requirements

A. Text Reviews: Each student will write a review of the Required Texts. The reviews will be written as though for an academic magazine or journal. It should:

1) identify each book’s main thesis or purpose,
2) give a brief summary of the contents,
3) include an evaluation of the work’s strengths and weaknesses,
4) compare and contrast the texts with each other.

All quotations and direct references to sections in the book should be indicated by page numbers within parentheses. Citations or paraphrases from other sources should be noted and documented using either footnotes or endnotes. Reviews should be 3-5 pages in length, single-spaced. Due May 9, 2016.

B. Book Review: Each student will write a review of a book from the Bibliography. Choice of book must be approved by the professor. No duplications will be allowed. Books will be assigned on a first come first served basis. The review will follow the above Text Review guidelines 1-3. Reviews should be 2-3 pages in length, single-spaced. Students will present their review during class as a basis for discussion. Review presentations will begin on the first day of class, May 9, 2016.

Recommended review texts are indicated by  in the bibliography.

C. Research Paper: Each student will write a research paper on a topic related to the class. Topics must be approved by the professor. The paper must be double spaced and follow Turabian, eighth edition, for style. However, do not use chapters to separate sections of your paper.
(chapters require a new page for each new chapter and the project is not long enough to justify this). Use section headings instead. The appendix should come before the bibliography and be single spaced. The text of your paper (not counting table of contents, appendix, or bibliography) should be 12-15 pages in length (no more, no less). Use 5 - 10 sources with a minimum of three (3) books (do not use only Internet sources). A late paper will be assessed an initial 10 point penalty. Each calendar day after the due date (excluding Sunday) an additional 10 point penalty will be assessed. Projects will be graded on clear organization, spelling, and grammar as well as content. Examples of Turabian form will be available in Blackboard. Research papers are due June 13, 2016.
