Pre-Seminar Assignments:

1. Leadership Lifeboats Reaction: The student will read Catastrophic Crisis: Ministry Leadership in the Midst of Trial and Tragedy. The student will write a four-page double spaced reaction to Chapter 9 “Leadership Lifeboats: Help in Coping with Crises.” Students should read carefully each case study in the various chapters as they will be assigned in group work during the seminar. First person may be utilized, but otherwise the paper must be in Turabian 8 style. This assignment is due to be posted on Blackboard by September 10.

2. Presentation of Olson: The students will work in groups to prepare a fifteen minute presentation of the strengths, weaknesses, and techniques to enhance one of the six leadership styles identified in Olson’s book. Groups for this assignment will be posted on Blackboard no later than August 1. Materials for the group presentation should be posted in the Discussion Board section of Blackboard no later than the time of the presentation.

3. Book Critique: Students will choose ten chapters of the twenty-three chapters in The Good Book on Leadership that give different leadership types and biblical examples (chapters 2-24). Students will then write a six to eight sentence reaction to each chapter. Notice that this is to be a reaction and not a summary. The focus should be on the presence or absence of practical application of the book to the student’s particular place of ministry. This assignment may be done in an informal manner. Turabian 8 style is not required, and the student may use first person.
Date Due: The student will post this assignment under the course assignment menu on BlackBoard by September 10.

(4) Personal Leadership Style Assessment: The student will utilize the material in Discovering Your Leadership Style to write four two-page (double-spaced) summaries of the four leadership factors – chemistry, spirituality, strategy, and wisdom explored in the book. (Note: This is a paper of four two-page summaries for a total of eight pages). The student should summarize each aspect of the factor as well provide an illustration or example of each factor in a ministry setting. When called upon, the student should be prepared in the seminar to discuss how examples illustrate the leadership factors.

In addition, students are to take the Leadership Stools Inventory in Chapter 1 of the Olson book. Highlight the results in a one-page summary to be included with the summaries of the four factors. NOTE: This is total of nine pages for this assignment.

This assignment does not have to conform to Turabian 8 style. First person may be used. The student will post this assignment under the course assignment menu on BlackBoard by September 10. The seminar schedule will include times for presentation and discussion.

(5) Leadership Style Presentation: Each student will work in a group and be responsible for leading a discussion of a particular section of Reviewing Leadership by Banks and Ledbetter. The professors will post the assignment schedule on BlackBoard under course documents no later than August 1. In preparation for working with the group, students will write a single spaced (space only between paragraphs) one-page paper that will summarize the important points of the chapter as they relate to their practice of ministry. This assignment does not have to conform to Turabian 8 style. First person may be used. The student will post his one-page paper of the assignment under the course assignment menu on BlackBoard by September 10. The group is to post any presentation materials in the Discussion Board of Blackboard by the time of the presentation.

(6) Personal DISC Profile Assessment: The student is to take the DISC profile in the version previously mentioned under the textbook listings. The student will write a two-page single spaced analysis (space between paragraphs only) of how the profile does or does not have implications concerning the leadership styles that the student employs. This assignment is due to be posted on Blackboard by September 10.

During the seminar assignment:

(7) Seminar Participation: Each student will participate actively in seminar presentations and discussions.
Following the seminar assignment:

(8) Integration Paper: Following the seminar each participant will write an application and integration paper. This nine-page paper should follow appropriate Turabian 8 format. However, first person may be used. The paper should be a personal reflection of the application and integration of the seminar content into ministry practice. At a minimum the paper should address the following items:

(a) Identify and discuss the primary leadership stylistic competencies that you employ. Discuss how you determined your primary leadership stylistic competencies.

(b) Discuss the strengths and weaknesses of your primary leadership stylistic competencies and illustrate with at least six specific examples from your ministry practice. Identify four ways to utilize your strengths. Identify four ways you can reduce your weaknesses.
