Have you moved? Changed your e-mail address or phone number?

Please update the ReDOC office with your new contact info by e-mailing phd@nobts.edu.

Dissertations Due March 1

If you are planning to submit your dissertation by March 1, please let the ReDOC office know if you have not already done so (e-mail is fine). The Program Materials page has all the necessary forms:

- Dissertation Fee and Order Form
- ProQuest agreement
- Copyright, abstract, vita formats
- Dissertation Processing Notebook
- ThM/PhD Graduation Application link

All parts of the dissertation should be submitted by the deadline, including dedication and acknowledgments, if any.

Applications for the ThM only are due by February 15. Students planning to submit dissertations can apply for graduation as late as March 1.

LifeWay is in the process of changing regalia providers. Rental and purchase forms are linked on the Program Materials page under Graduation.

Has your paper been accepted for presentation at a scholarly society meeting?

If so, please send the title and meeting details to the ReDOC office at phd@nobts.edu.

ReDOC Schedule for 2017-2018

The following are the remaining ReDOC meetings for 2017– 2018.

- March 14 (2/14 IRB)
(summer directed studies)
- April 11 (3/12 IRB)
- May 9 (4/9 IRB) (fall directed studies)
- June 6 (5/7 IRB)

An IRB request and a pdf of a prospectus for research using human subjects must be submitted to the guidance committee chair, who must forward them to redocsec@nobts.edu, indicating permission to proceed, no later than one month prior to the meeting at which the prospectus will be considered. See the Program Materials page for the form and details.

A prospectus to be considered by ReDOC must be reviewed by your guidance committee and 9 copies submitted through your chairperson to the Office of Research Doctoral Programs no later than one week before the scheduled ReDOC meeting. Prospectuses for research involving human subjects must be received one month before the meeting.

Likewise, matters such as directed study proposals and requests to take courses at other institutions must be submitted one week before the ReDOC meeting at which they will be considered.

Also e-mail a pdf of the prospectus or directed study proposal to phd@nobts.edu. Do submit a hard copy of the directed study approval page.

Please keep in mind that final approval of your prospectus is granted by your doctoral guidance committee after you make any revisions your committee deems appropriate in light of feedback from ReDOC.

If you are required to go through the Institutional Review Board approval process for research with human subjects, your committee cannot approve your prospectus until the IRB assesses the risk to and protection of the participants.

The maximum length for the prospectus is 30 pages of text plus the selected bibliography.

NOTE: If you think your guidance committee has approved your prospectus but you have not seen your approval in the ReDOC News, please let us know.

IF YOU HAVE MOVED OR CHANGED YOUR E-MAIL ADDRESS OR PHONE NUMBER, PLEASE NOTIFY THE REDOC OFFICE AND UPDATE YOUR INFORMATION IN SELF-SERVE.

The Scott M. Gibson
Emerging Scholars Grant

SPONSORED BY THE EVANGELICAL HOMILETICS SOCIETY

From its founding in 1997, the Evangelical Homiletics Society has been committed to cultivating rising scholars in the field of homiletics. This Grant honors Dr. Scott M. Gibson, co-founder and first president of the Society.

The Emerging Scholars Grant is a means for the Society to assist and encourage developing scholars to fund their education. Awardees of this grant represent the best in current graduate educational scholarship in homiletics.

SCHOLARSHIP DETAILS ARE AS FOLLOWS:

- This scholarship is open to all Associate Members of the Evangelical Homiletics Society enrolled at the PhD level of graduate study
- The submission must focus on research regarding a relevant issue in homiletics
- The length of the research will be 15,000 – 20,000 words, follow the current JEHS style guide for articles
- The target readers are evangelical professors of homiletics
- The student must submit the research to ResearchScholarship@ehomiletics.com by the stated deadline of APRIL 30, 2017
- A jury of EHS members will evaluate the essay “blindly” based on relevance to the teaching of biblical preaching and the EHS confessional statement, and determine a recipient
- The Board will notify the students of the decisions at least 90 days prior to the EHS annual conference
- The awardee is expected to attend the EHS annual conference
- Recipient will be recognized at the annual Evangelical Homiletics Society conference, may be given an option of presenting the research during the Evangelical Homiletics Society annual conference and possibly published in a future issue of the The Journal of the Evangelical Homiletics Society

Cash scholarship of first place is $2,000, plus registration fees and meals to attend the EHS conference. Travel assistance to the conference may be available.

The submission deadline is 30 April 2018.
