June 5 (5/6 IRB)

An IRB request and a pdf of a prospectus for research using human subjects must be submitted to the guidance committee chair, who must forward them to redocsec@nobts.edu, indicating permission to proceed, no later than one month prior to the meeting at which the prospectus will be considered. See the Program Materials page for the form and details.

A prospectus to be considered by ReDOC must be reviewed by your guidance committee and 10 copies (double-sided

You cannot contact study participants before approval of both the IRB and your guidance committee. IRB approval is valid for two years.

The winner of the $750 award will be invited to present the paper at the June 2019 Mercersburg Society Convocation, and the paper may be published in the New Mercersburg Review.

According to Anne T. Thayer, Diefenderfer Professor of Mercersburg and Ecumenical Theology and Church History at Lancaster Theological Seminary in Lancaster, PA, “Mercersburg Theology developed in the German Reformed Church in the mid-19th century under the leadership of John Williamson Nevin and Philip Schaff. They took the incarnation as their theological starting point and went on to stress the importance of the universal Church as the body of Christ organically developing through history. . . . Students taking courses in Theology, Church History, American Christianity, or Worship might well find the Mercersburg tradition a fruitful topic for in-depth study.”

Papers should be submitted to Dr. Thayer at athayer@lancasterseminary.edu by May 20, 2019.
