The mission of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary is to equip leaders to fulfill the Great Commission and the Great Commandments through the local church and its ministries.

Purpose of Course

The purpose of this course is to provide the student an opportunity for attendance in the Southeast Conclave in Chattanooga, TN and gain academic credit for participation.

Core Values

The seminary has five core values. The focal core value for 2019-2020 is Spiritual Vitality. This course supports the five core values of the seminary.

Spiritual Vitality – We are a worshiping community emphasizing both personal spirituality and gathering together as a Seminary family for the praise and adoration of God and instruction in His Word.

Curriculum Competencies Addressed

NOBTS faculty members realize that all ministers need to develop specific competencies if they are going to have an effective ministry. To increase the likelihood of NOBTS graduates having an effective ministry, the faculty developed a competency-based curriculum after identifying seven essential competencies necessary for effective ministry. All graduates are expected to have at least a minimum level of competency in all of the following areas:

Biblical Exposition: to interpret and communicate the Bible accurately.

Christian Theological Heritage: To understand and interpret Christian theological heritage and Baptist polity for the church.

Disciple Making: To stimulate church health through mobilizing the church for missions, evangelism, discipleship, and church growth.

Interpersonal Skills: To perform pastoral care effectively, with skills in communication and conflict management.

Servant Leadership: To serve churches effectively through team ministry.

Spiritual and Character Formation: To provide moral leadership by modeling and mentoring Christian character and devotion.

Worship Leadership: To facilitate worship effectively.

This course will address the following curriculum competencies:

1. Biblical Exposition: Students will explore biblical imperatives related to youth ministry.
2. Servant Leadership: Students will identify skills necessary for effective ministry leadership.
3. Interpersonal Skills: Students will value the relationships with students, families, volunteers, and the community.
4. Disciple Making: Students will examine the community of faith is where disciples are made, with emphasis on family relationships in context of the church body.

Course Description

The objective of the Youth Ministry Institute (YMI) is to offer youth ministry training, using a concentrated delivery system. YMI is an educational delivery system to provide a different type of youth ministry dialogue. The delivery system is especially beneficial for extension center students and others residing in locations other than New Orleans. In addition, alumni and veteran youth ministers who wish to return for continuing education may register for a conference fee.

YMI is not a replication of classes which are offered during the regular academic semester, but a different type of exposure to youth ministry altogether. Professors and guest speakers who are experts in the field of youth ministry will address topics within the discipline of youth ministry.

Student Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the course, the student will be able to:

- Identify current issues in youth ministry in the areas of youth culture, adolescent development, discipleship with youth and families, and the basic work of the minister of youth. Additionally, students will process information regarding the fundamentals of youth ministry.
- Value the need to create environments to facilitate community among families, student friendships, and other adults in the church.
- Develop skills and strategies to encourage relationships within the church to create environments where families, youth ministry, and friendships may synergize to facilitate discipleship and faith maturity among the youth in a community of faith.

Required Readings

Kinnaman, David, and Mark Matlock. Faith for Exiles: 5 Ways for a New Generation to Follow Jesus in Digital Babylon. Grand Rapids, MI: Baker Publishing, 2019.

Ross, Richard. Youth Ministry that Lasts a Lifetime. Fort Worth, TX: Seminary Hill Press, 2017. (order online at: <https://seminaryhillpress.com/product/youth-ministry-that-lasts-a-lifetime/>)

Prior to conference, students must read the first book, Faith for Exiles. Students will meet for dinner or other break times to discuss the text.

Course Teaching Methodology

The course will involve the following methodologies: reading assignments, written book reviews, Youth Ministry Conclave session summaries, and a research paper. The primary methodology will be conference session attendance and discussion, supplemented by individual research and writing, guided by the professor.

Assignments and Evaluation Criteria

Pre-Conference Assignments

1. Reading Report (10%)

Faith for Exiles: 5 Ways for a New Generation to Follow Jesus in Digital Babylon by David Kinnaman and Mark Matlock.

Write a 1-page (double-spaced) summary of the basic themes of the book and one application to youth ministry. Students will refer to this summary at the dinner meeting on the first day of the conference.

Email professor before midnight on Thursday, January 23, 2020.

During the Conference

2. Attend Conference Sessions (20%)

Students are required to attend all conference sessions. Attendance at conference sessions serves as class time for the course.

After the Conference

3. Session Summaries (20%)

Students will write one-page, double-spaced summaries of all sessions from the Youth Leadership Conference. Submit one document with all session summaries on Blackboard.

Due before midnight on Sunday, February 9, 2020.

4. Critical Book Reviews (20%)

Write a review (4-5 pages each) of both of the required reading textbooks.

Each review should include the following:

- a) Identify the author's purpose for writing. Was he able to communicate his purpose?
- b) Provide a brief overview of the key ideas from the text (about 2 pages).
- c) Evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of the book. Note: Strengths and weaknesses are not likes or dislikes, but an academic evaluation that should be supported by the course texts or content (about 2 pages).
- d) Answer the question, "Did the book help your understanding of youth culture or youth ministry?" If so, how did it help? If not, why not?

Email both reviews as one document before midnight on Sunday, February 23, 2020.

5. Synthesis Paper (30%)

Based on the textbook readings and what you learned at the conference, write a 6-8 page paper describing your youth ministry strategy/philosophy and a one-year ministry plan for a local church. The document should include youth cultural information, bible study topics, ministry to parents, and your plan for training adult volunteers. The one-year plan should include weekly meetings and special events, as well as a summary of teaching content. Submit document on Blackboard before midnight on Sunday, March 23, 2020.

Course Policies

Academic Honesty Policy: All graduate and undergraduate NOBTS students, whether on-campus, internet, or extension center students, are expected to adhere to the highest Christian standard of honesty and integrity when completing academic assignments for all courses in every delivery system format. The Bible provides our standard for academic integrity and honesty. This standard applies whether a student is taking tests, quizzes, exams, writing papers, completing Discussion Boards, or any other course requirement.

Assignment Formatting: Unless otherwise noted, all assignments are to be created in Turabian format. All written assignments must be Word documents, written in third person unless otherwise instructed, and created in 12 pt. Times New Roman font. PDFs will not be accepted.

Assignment Submission: All assignments are to be submitted to Blackboard by 11:59 p.m. of the due date unless otherwise indicated. Do not send files as attachments via email to the professor. For technical reasons, this mode of file transmission is extremely inefficient.

Grading Scale: Your final grade will be based on your total accumulation of points as indicated under the Assignments and Evaluation Criteria section of this syllabus according to the grading scale in the NOBTS 2013-2014 catalog.

A 93-100 B 85-92 C 77-84 D 70-76 F 69 and below

Late Assignments: All work is due on the assigned date and time in the syllabus. Late assignments will be penalized five points for each day the assignment is late. Assignments will not be accepted two weeks past the due date.

Netiquette: Appropriate Online Behavior: Each student is expected to demonstrate appropriate Christian behavior when working online. The student is expected to interact with other students in a fashion that will promote learning and respect for the opinions of others in the course. A spirit of Christian charity is expected at all times in the online environment.

Plagiarism: A high standard of personal integrity is expected of all students. Copying another person's work, submitting downloaded material without proper references, submitting material without properly citing the source, submitting the same material for credit in more than one course, and other such forms of dishonesty are strictly forbidden. Although anything cited in three sources is considered public domain, we require that all sources be cited. Any infraction will result in failing the course. Any infraction will be reported to the Dean of Students for further action.

Recording Policy: Recordings of class, including any audio and/or video recordings, regardless of the media or format, and regardless of the intended or actual use, are not permitted without prior written permission of the professor. The class will be notified in advance should any such recording be approved. This policy is intended to protect the privacy of the students.

Revision of the Syllabus: The course syllabus is not a legal contract. Any syllabus revision will be preceded by a reasonable notice to students. The standards and requirements set forth in this syllabus may be modified at any time by the professor. Notice of such changes will be by announcement in class or by email notice.

Withdrawal from the Course: The administration has set deadlines for withdrawal. These dates and times are published in the academic calendar. Administration procedures must be followed. You are responsible to handle withdrawal requirements. A professor can't issue a withdrawal. You must do the proper paperwork to ensure that you will not receive a final grade of "F" in the course if you choose not to attend once you are enrolled.
