PERSONAL

On September 24, 1965, I was born in Tallulah, Louisiana. At two years old, my family moved to Liberia, West Africa as missionaries with the International Mission Board. There I spent my childhood growing up in a rich and diverse mission setting until I moved back to the US for my Senior year of high school.

Amy Williams and I got married on October 18, 1997. We have four children: Solomon, Gideon, Silas, and Jaelle.
